

Hey, everyone, hope you are well 😊

Today, we're going to read an interview and use the phrases "still" and "any more".

To begin, open your textbooks on pages 62 and 63.

On the move

Read the interview with Craig Forster. Mark the words you don't understand and find their meanings with the help of a dictionary.

Now, let's do some exercises:

Exercise 2a

Read the text again and then write the correct sentences in your workbook. Whole sentences, none of that "1a, 2c, 3b" stuff! 😊

Exercise 2b

Read the sentences, copy them and write if the information is true, false or not in the text.

Exercise 3

Match the sentences 1 – 5 with a – e, then complete them by using "still" and "any more".

Share your ideas:

Now that you have read the interview and done some of the exercises, write about the biggest change that has happened in your life. It can be a move to a new place, attending a new school or meeting a new person. Your imagination and your experiences are the limit. If nothing like this has ever happened to you (which I doubt), you can just make something up. 😊

That's all, folks. Have a great day 😊
